Architecture Inception Canvas

Software System:

Designed by Team:

Workshop Date:

Iteration:

Business Case

Quality Goals

stakeholder.

Brief description of the business case or economic driver behind the software system.

Functional Overview

Business Context

Organisational Constraints

Any organisational requirement that limits

the software architects freedom of decision.

The most important functional requirements at a high level.

Separate your system under construction as a black box from all its communication partners. Communication partners are neighbouring external systems and users.

The three most important quality goals for the architecture, which have the highest priority for the most important

Any technical requirement that limits the software architects freedom of decision.

Architectural hypotheses

Technical Challenges & Risks

Resulting architectural hypotheses and important, expensive, large-scale or risky Identified current known challenges and technical risks architectural decisions, including justifications.